The Royal University of Phnom Penh is now accepting applications for the 10th Year of the Masters of Science in Biodiversity Conservation.

The MSc programme provides the knowledge and skills required for a successful career in sustainable development & conservation. Scholarships are available, including the women only Kanitha Fund.

Information session: Saturday 20th September at 2pm in Room 418, RUPP Faculty of Science, Confederation of Russia Boulevard, Phnom Penh.

Information and application forms: visit the Centre for Biodiversity Conservation - Room 415, Building A, RUPP Faculty of Science; or contact:
Ms Pheng Sokline: pheng.sokline@rupp.edu.kh
Phone: 017 599 742

Applications close: 26 September 2014
www.rupp.edu.kh/master/biodiversity/